CLARE DeBRIERE

EVP and Chief Operating Officer

Ratkovich Co.

Los Angeles

Responsible for the acquisition, development, financing, marketing and disposition of millions of square feet of development, DeBriere joined the company as a summer intern in 1991 and worked her way through property management, leasing, construction, financing and development, all while earning her graduate degree at USC's Lusk Center for Real Estate. During her tenure with the Ratkovich Co., she has been involved in leasing up the Alhambra and 5900 Wilshire Blvd., despite a still-dwindling real estate market. DeBriere also helps preserve and revitalize Downtown Los Angeles through the Executive Committee at the LA Conservancy and assists students as part of UCLA's College of Letters and Science History Council. Her long-term goals include developing a capital source to provide financing for the acquisition of distressed real estate.
